

Announcement of Thanyasitthisin School

Title : No Gift Policy

Conduct in relation to giving or receiving gifts or benefits

1. No government official is prohibited from receiving gifts or any property or any other benefit from a person. Other than assets or reasonable benefits under the law or rules and regulations issued by virtue of law except for the ethical receipt of assets or any other benefits which are as follows:

(1) Receiving property or any other benefits from relatives given by affection in an amount appropriate to their position.

(2) Receiving property or any other benefit from a person who is not a relative, there is a price or value to receive from each person or each occasion not exceeding 3,000 baht.

(3) Receiving property or any other benefit that such giving is given to the general people.

2. All gifts with historical or cultural value such as works of art, Buddha statues, antique ornaments, etc., although small in size, are regarded as the organization property regardless of their cost.

3. Gifts or benefits received compared to the market price are less than 3,000 baht, do not need to be reported or may be kept for themselves. This is to comply with the Notification of the National Anti-Corruption Commission Re: Criteria for Receiving Assets or Any Other Ethical Benefits of Government Officials, B.E.2543

4. Any gift or benefit compared to the market price is more than 3,000 baht, must be reported to the agency and registered.

5. If a gift or benefit has a marketing value between 3,000 – 15,000 baht and the staff need to accept it. Organization by the head of the government agency decides whether it is appropriate for that government official or government official to receive such assets or not.

6. If the gift or benefit has a marketing value of more than 15,000 baht, it shall be delivered as the property of the organization for public use or as appropriate. The organization may consider allowing that government official or official to keep items on a case-by-case basis, such as the gift of relocated while in office. Gifts on retirement or resignation, etc.

7. If in any fiscal year the value of gifts and or benefits received from the same giver same group or the giver has several relationships when the total year-round is worth more than 3,000 baht, each gift or benefit received must be reported.

8. If in any fiscal year received gifts and/or benefits received from service recipients, even from different groups as a thank you for good service, but when the total amount is more than 3,000 baht, the gift must be reported or each of those benefits.

9. Any gifts and/or benefits received as a thank you from service recipients (publics and non-governmental organizations) that are frequently given may cause public suspicion of influence, distortion, prejudice in provide the services of government officials or government officials or may induce a sense of preference and expectation of a gift or benefit when someone receives a service; should refuse to accept.

10. Cash or anything that can be exchanged for money must be refused under any circumstances.

Issue on 15 May 2023

(Mr. Wattana Boonjana)

Director of Thanyasitthisin School