

Announcement of Udomseelwitthaya School
Subject: Prohibition on Accepting All Types of Gifts or Benefits from Performing Official Duties (No Gift Policy)

Udomseelwitthaya School recognizes the importance of fostering an organizational culture that upholds appropriate values and practices. All personnel are expected to refrain from giving or receiving gifts, gratuities, or any other benefits arising from the performance of their official duties. This is to prevent misuse of authority for personal or others' benefit, in line with government policies and national anti-corruption reform plans.

To demonstrate a clear intention to combat all forms of corruption and to promote integrity, ethics, and honesty in operations, which leads to transparency and good governance, the school hereby declares that: Udomseelwitthaya School adopts a "No Gift Policy," whereby all personnel shall not accept any kind of gifts or gratuities in relation to their duties, whether before, during, or after such duties. This is to avoid any actions that may affect discretion or decision-making, which could lead to partiality or conflicts of interest. All executives and supervisors at every level shall serve as role models and closely monitor their subordinates to ensure correct and strict compliance with anti-corruption and misconduct prevention measures.

This announcement is made for public awareness and strict compliance.
