

Bandonson School: Abstaining from receiving and giving gifts on New Year's festivals or any other occasions (No Gift Policy)
Fiscal year 2023

.....

Bandonson School realized the importance in strengthening organizational culture Values and guidelines for people to adhere to regarding giving or Receive gifts or gifts or any other benefits from performing duties. which is in accordance with government policy In line with the national reform plan for prevention and suppression of corruption and misconduct.

To express the intention to resist all forms of corruption. Including strengthening morality, ethics and honesty in work. which results in transparency in operations According to the principles of good governance which Bandonson School Be aware of the importance of cultivating awareness of not accepting and intolerant of corruption. Along with determining measures to prevent bribery, including strengthening the values, attitudes, conscience and behavior of personnel under the organization. To avoid actions that may affect judgment or decision in performing duties. which leads to discrimination or conflicts of interest by executives and personnel at all levels Behave as a good example. Therefore announced to refrain from receiving and giving gifts. All types from performing duties, both while, before and after performing duties and during the New Year festival or any other occasion, No Gift Policy, where you can express good wishes to each other. How to use greeting cards Blessings on social media or volunteering instead of giving gifts.

Therefore, it has been announced for everyone to know. and strictly adhere to Announced on January 3, 2023

(Mrs.Lelawadee Sreepuak)

Bandonson School Director